R.C. Mother Saves Three From Death

Two children of an army sergeant and their grandmother were saved from asphyxiation here Monday by the timely arrival of the youngsters' mother, who found one of her children unconscious and the two other persons in a dazed condition.

When Mrs. Ruth Skoverski arrived at the home of a friend at 446 Sequoia Ave. just south of Redwood City after visiting the friend in Palo Alto Hospital, she found her son, John Skoverski, 4, on the floor unconscious; her daughter, Joan, 7, semi-conscious, and her mother, Mrs. W. C. Wyrich, in a dazed condition.

Mrs. Skoverski telephoned for an ambulance which took the two youngsters to Monteith Clinic for emergency treatment. Contents of their stomachs were pumped out in the belief the children had swallowed poison.

A check at the home by L. W. Marshall of the Pacific Gas & Electric Co., in the company of deputy sheriffs, who were investigating the possible poisoning, showed that fumes were escaping from a gas heater, and this was blamed for the condition of the children and their grandmother.

Marshall declared "they were lucky they had not all died."

The children were taken to Community Hospital and released. They apparently were suffering no ill effects today. Mrs. Wyrich did not require medical treatment.

The Skoverski family and Mrs. Wyrich came from their home in Albany Sunday to stay at the Sequoia Ave. home of Mrs. N. B. Stensieri, a friend of the family who underwent an operation in Palo Alto Hospital Monday.

John Skoverski, father of the two children, is a master sergeant with the army ground forces in Italy. Mrs. Stensieri's husband is in the merchant marine.

Home Planners Study Sites, Laws

"Site Selection" and "Building Laws" were the topics of discussion at Wednesday5s session of the Home Planning Institute — second of the series which is currently being conducted at Sequoia High School under the auspices of the Adult Evening School, and sponsored by Northern California associations affiliated with the home building business.

Raymond D. Smith, San Francisco realtor who is executive vice president of the San Francisco Real Estate Board and secretary of the Council of Bay District Real Estate Boards, presented a lecture on site selection which was followed by a general discussion.

Chief building inspector of San Mateo County, A. W. Russell, delivered the second lecture of the evening when he talked on building laws.

Russell is chairman of the Administrative and Legal Committee of the Pacific Coast Building Officials Conference and is also a member of the Code Changes Committee of the Pacific Coast Building Officials Conference.

Nearly 200 persons attended the first lectures of the Home Planning Institute last week. Lectures are scheduled for each Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m., through Apr. 11. Admission is free.

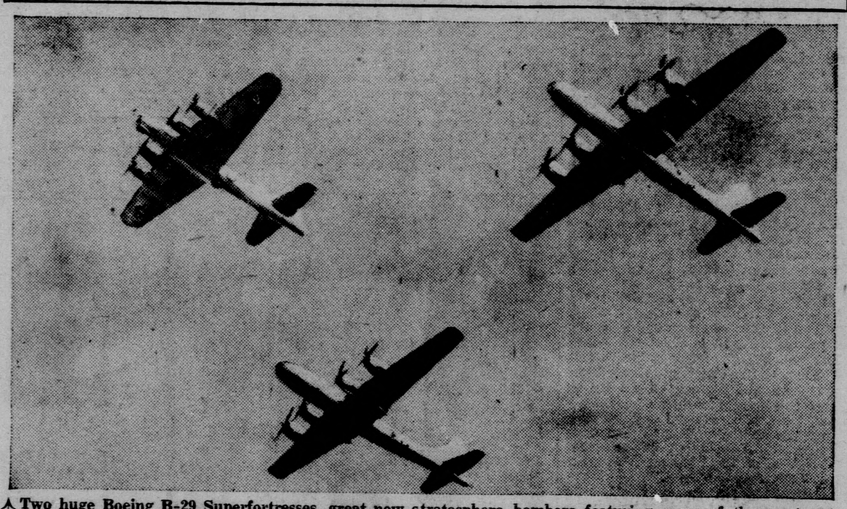
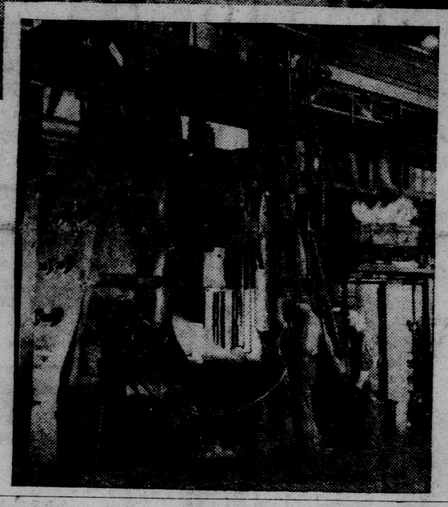
B-29 Power Comes From Superfactory



Two huge Boeing B-29 Superfortresses, great new stratosphere bombers featuring some of the most outstanding and daring aerodynamic developments of the war, are seen flying in formation with a Boeing Flying Fortress, (upper left) the B-17G. Half again as large as the Fortress, and with the speed of a pursuit plane, the four-engined B-29 still continues to draw Japan's blood.



Part of a nationwide synchronization of America's industrial forces to produce this great plane is the world's largest factory, Dodge Chicago Plant, Division of Chrysler Corporation, exclusively devoted to mass production (above) of 2200 h.p. Wright Cyclone engines to power the Superfortress.

This superfactory includes enormous forging plants. Skilled Dodge Chicago workers (left), working with this 35,000 pound steam hammer, forge a red hot steel billet into a crank case center for the B-29 engine in two operations.

Study Junipero Serra Plans

Redwood City planning commissioners Tuesday recommended that a joint committee from the commission and city council be appointed to study the proposed extension of Junipero Serra Blvd. as the suggested Peninsula thoroughfare would affect Redwood City.

The commissioners studied maps of the proposed extension which would enter Redwood City 500 feet west of Alameda de las Pulgas near Eaton Ave. and cut southwest through residential properties to Woodside Rd. and Alameda de las Pulgas.

Concurring that the location of the extension would involve considerable study, the commissioners recommended that the council appoint a committee to study the project in detail.

Approval of the rezoning application of Charles Lock, who had asked that a vacant lot east of Redwood City near the Bayshore Hwy. be changed to permit light industry was granted by the commissioners.

Also approved was the request of Angelo Franceschini and Guiseppe Ferrando to rezone a portion of a lot next to the Curry Manufacturing Co. on El Camino Real which was recently granted the change to business from residential.

The petition of W. O. Tyson, Annie Tyson and Frank Morlino who had requested rezoning of a lot off Hilton and Spring Sts. was looked upon with disfavor by the commissioners who recommended that the property not be changed from residential zoning to business.

An open hearing on the request of the First Church of Christ to build a church comprising more than the allowed 35 per cent of a 50-foot lot at Hudson and Katherine Sts. was continued to the next meeting of the commissioners.

Mattress Fire Heats R. C. Hotel

Redwood City firemen Sunday at 8:45 a.m. investigated a mattress fire at the Franstaff Hotel on Main St., which had occurred between 3 and 4 a.m.

Occupants of the room had tossed the blazing mattress from the room before any damage was done, firemen said.

Another Gas Station Reports Huge Theft

Nearly 800 gallons of gasoline was taken from underground storage tanks at the Shell Service Station, 1678 Main St., the night of Feb. 3, the proprietor of the station told Redwood City police Saturday.

No explanation was given for the delay in reporting the theft, police said.

Plane Crash Fatal to Flier From Capitola

Navy officials in San Francisco revealed that Robert T. Burke, 22-year-old ensign from Capitola, Santa Cruz County, was the pilot who met death when his Hellcat fighter plane crashed into San Francisco Bay three miles east of Redwood City Saturday.

The navy listed next-of-kin as his widow, Elsie Louise Burke.

Ensign Burke, whose plane crashed while on a routine training flight from the Naval Auxiliary Air Station at Watsonville, was recovered at 3:30 p.m. some distance from the wreckage by three Palo Alto men who went to the scene in a privately-owned motor boat.

The men, Palo Alto Harbormaster Mark Nesbitt, Martin K. Smith, and William T. Feit, owner of the Chris-Craft, discovered the body floating in shallow water. The young officer was still strapped in the seat which had been torn from the plane by the impact.

Arriving at the crash scene near Dumbarton Bridge more than an hour after the plane had been recovered, the three patrolled the shallower waters which had been inaccessible to the three larger Coast Guard crash boats.

The dead pilot was removed by the Coast Guard to Alameda, and a navy tender arrived at the vicinity to salvage the plane which was almost completely submerged.

Aiding in the search for the pilot and plane which went down between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, was a coast guard patrol boat from the Port of Redwood City, manned by coast guard auxiliary volunteers.

Aboard the ship were Lt. (jg) Harold F. Anderson, Seaman 2/c Roy Fredlund, Seaman 2/c J. V. Malcuit and Storekeeper 1/c S. E. Alberson of Redwood City.

Crew members from San Jose included Lt. Marshall Hall, Chief Petty Officer James Liston, Coxswain J. V. Kelly, and Seaman 2/c A. J. Poole.

Also aboard the auxiliary-manned ship were Lts. W. A. McAuliffe and W. L. Wells, naval officers stationed at the Port of Redwood City, who went along as observers.

Shortly after the vessel had been dispatched from the port to aid in the search, Percy Powell of Redwood City, skipper of the tug "Morgan Shell," reported to coast guard officers at the port that he had seen a navy plane circling his ship at 12:15 p.m.

The pilot, he said, was waving at the tug, the engine of his plane was sputtering, and the wing flaps were being raised and lowered as if in an attempt to signal.

Smith and Nesbitt, who are also members of the coast guard auxiliary, arrived at the crash scene 15 minutes after their departure from Palo Alto, seven miles distant.

Menlo Park Mayor Denies Resigning Post; Attorney To Check Residence Requirement

Donald Fisher denied rumors that he was resigning his position as mayor of Menlo Park at Tuesday's meeting of the city council. Mayor Fisher said that although he is now living in San Mateo he still intends to serve out his term of office unless it is illegal.

City Atty. James O'Keefe stated that he would give his interpretation of the law covering office holders residing out of the district at the next meeting of the council.

Police Comsr. Lloyd Neumann proposed that a new police officer be employed by the city. He stated that it is necessary to add another man to the force to assure proper police protection to the city. The council unanimously approved the proposal and authorized Commissioner Neumann to accept applications for the position.

Councilman Charles Burgess told the council that the Menlo Park Garbage Co. has notified him that they would appear before the city council at the next meeting to file a formal application to increase their rates for 30 gallon cans from 50c to 75c per month. Councilman Burgess said the company contends that the rates in Menlo Park are the lowest on the peninsula.

The council confirmed Mayor Fisher's appointment of William Hempel and Paul Bryant to fill the two vacancies on the Menlo Park Planning Commission.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, Feb. 27, at 7:30 p.m., in the city hall.

Police Record Minor Accidents

Three minor traffic accidents in which no one was injured were investigated by Redwood City police officers Monday.

At 8:10 a.m., Dwight O. Johnson, 40, of Rt. 1, Box 812, Redwood City, and Edgar A. Coe, 54, of 461-5th Ave. Redwood City, were drivers of automobiles that collided at Broadway and Chestnut St.

Middlefield Rd. and Maple St. was the scene of another collision involving cars driven by William Ives Madeira, 60, of Rt. 1, Box 876, Woodside, and Lucille Clanton, 30, of 577 5th Ave., Redwood City, at 12:18 p.m., police said.

The third crash of the day occurred at Broadway and Middlefield Rd., when automobiles driven by Marie Dolores Miramon, 33, of 819 Cedar St., San Carlos, and Rufina Josephine Ayres, 108 Bonita Ave., Redwood City, collided when the latter made a right turn into an outside lane.

Slight Damage In Jeter St. Blaze

Blazing kitchen curtains in the home of A. W. Jordan, 138 Jeter St., were extinguished by Redwood City firemen Sunday at 5:14 p.m. before extensive damage was done.

The fire resulted in scorched walls, firemen said.

High School Principals Begin Vocational Training Study

In order to improve vocational teaching at the high schools in San Mateo County, principals of the county's secondary schools are conducting a survey to determine what changes should be effected in the postwar period, Supt. A. C. Argo announced today.

Meeting at San Mateo High School this week were Argo, Will T. Van Voris, superintendent of the San Mateo High School district, and the following principals: Joseph Acheson of San Mateo High School, Miss Elsie Northrup of Burlingame High School, Carl Weller of South San Francisco High School, Stanford Hannah of Jefferson High School, Ellis R. Benson of Half Moon Bay High School, E. F. Williman of Pescadero High School and Charles S. Morris, president of San Mateo Junior College.

Argo was appointed to head a committee survey of the present courses in shop and other vocational education courses now being taught in the county. With the completion of the survey within the next week, the superintendents will again meet. At this time, representatives of industries and labor in the county, shop instructors at the high schools, and the principals will discuss postwar changes which will aid students and prepare them for industrial jobs.

Also on the committee investigating shop instruction are Acheson, Morris and Williman. Miss Pansy Abbott, county superintendent of schools, is acting as advisor to the group.

O'Neill Confirms Peterson Break; Defies Executive

Dr. Arthur E. O'Neill Monday publicly announced for the first time that he and his former political ally, County Executive Frederick Peterson, have come to the "parting of the ways," as had been reported, and defied Peterson to remove him from the County Board of Health and Welfare.

"The county executive and I reached a parting of the ways a considerable time prior to the November general election of 1944, during which I was a candidate for supervisor of the Third Township," O'Neill said.

A rift between Dr. O'Neill and Peterson has been reported unofficially on numerous occasions but had not been publicly confirmed. The break report appeared well founded last week, however, when an official list of county board members compiled by County Clerk William H. Augustus failed to carry Dr. O'Neill's name as a member of the health board.

Peterson blamed the omission of O'Neill's name as an error on Augustus' part, but Augustus declared that if any mistake had been made, Peterson made it.

Dr. O'Neill, who could not be reached until Monday for comment on the matter, had this to say:

"Upon my return Sunday from an out-of-town business trip, I learned through the press that I was the center of quite a courthouse political flurry because County Executive Frederic Peterson had failed, due to forgetfulness on his part or error, to submit my name along with others to the county clerk reaffirming my appointment to the San Mateo County Board of Health and Welfare.

"The whole affair can be likened to the mountain that labored and brought forth a mouse.

"The fact remains, however, that I am still a member of the San Mateo County Board of Health and Welfare by appointment of Mr. Peterson and confirmation by the board of supervisors, and that my term of office calls for four years' service, and that the said term of office has not expired as yet and will not expire for some time to come.

"Mr. Peterson knows that better than anyone else in the courthouse.

"Mr. Peterson has explained his error by stating to the press that omission of my name was an oversight; that he had forgotten about me.

"That explanation is a logical one. Mr. Peterson is given to forgetfulness at times—particularly in matters political where sweet forgetfulness is advantageous.

"As to any reported rift between myself and the county executive to which the press has referred, I would like to say this:

"The county executive and I reached a parting of the ways considerable time prior to the November general election of 1944, during which I was a candidate for supervisor of the Third Township.

"I sincerely felt that a candidate for public office should have the courage of his convictions to run his own campaign. I ran my own campaign without anyone's political blessings."

Herkner Named To Chest Post

S. D. Herkner was Tuesday night appointed chairman of the 1945 Redwood City Community Chest campaign committee during the monthly meeting of the community chest board of directors. Pres. Duncan Reynard also appointed James Thomas, Mrs. S. A. Cotrell and Dr. Sumner Hardy, representing Woodside, to the committee.

This group will select a manager for the drive in the Fall and will lay the ground work for the campaign. Other committees named for the year were: Budget, Graham Adams, chairman; Walter Kellogg, Elmer K. Rose and P. C. Clarkin; Nominating, Mrs. Donald Bogie, chairman; Mrs. Floyd McCue and J. W. Locker. H. C. Mitchell was appointed publicity chairman.

New Charge In Burglary Case Looms

Samuel John Stubbs, 23-year-old escaped prisoner from a Camp Roberts guard house who Tuesday admitted five Peninsula burglaries, may have a charge of bigamy added to his record.

Stubbs told Chief Dep. Dist. Atty. A. S. Whitmore Wednesday that he was married to Rose Rafferty in Philadelphia, Pa., and was the father of her two small children, and said that without the formality of a divorce from his first wife, he married Ethel Silva, 17, in San Jose. Stubbs said he did not know whether or not his first wife had filed divorce proceedings.

Should there be a bigamy charge against Stubbs, it probably would be initiated by Santa Clara County officials, Whitmore said.

Stubbs has admitted burglarizing two stationery stores in San Mateo, a bakery and furniture store in San Bruno and a cleaning establishment in Redwood City. The San Mateo burglaries netted him $700.

Stubbs also admitted burglarizing a service station 35 or 40 miles east of Fresno.

He was serving a 17-year military court-martial sentence at Camp Roberts when he escaped on Oct. 16, 1944—his third escape. He was arrested by Redwood City police early yesterday in the lobby of the Sequoia Hotel. He had a .32 Colt automatic pistol on him when he was arrested. He said he stole the pistol in the service station burglary near Fresno.

Stubbs was given a six-months sentence for desertion when he first escaped and stole an automobile. It was after the first escape that he married the San Jose girl. He then was sentenced by a court-martial to 17 years' imprisonment at hard labor.

The Dunedin national museum of New Zealand has two rare and perfect specimens of moa eggs. These large, flightless birds, resembling the ostrich, only larger, and confined to New Zealand, are thought to have become extinct more than 500 years ago.

$100,000 Youth Home Plans Ready

Hopes for starting construction of the new $100,000 county juvenile home soon were expressed Tuesday afternoon by the San Mateo County Probation Committee, which agreed on a one-story cement building to face on Broadway on the site of the present juvenile home.

Building plans approved by the committee call for a capacity space for 21 delinquents and 12 dependents and neglected children.

Chmn. Edward H. Cosgriff is to work details for starting construction with county and city officials.

The home itself will cost an estimated $85,000. Offices which will be built in conjunction with the home are expected to boost the figure above the $100,000 mark.

It will take six months to complete the building after it is started, Probation Officer John S. Cowgill said.

The probation committee on Jan. 24 voted to recommend to the board of supervisors that the new home be erected on the present site covering the major portion of a city block in Redwood City.

Plans call for tearing down the present juvenile home and office and of tearing down a road department building in back of the home. The county owns the entire block.

The committee made preliminary budget plans and set up a new position of an additional deputy probation officer and an additional stenographer. This would bring the number of deputies to three, in addition to an assistant probation officer.

Cowgill reported that 80 new cases were handled by the probation department last month and that it has a total of 227 cases under its jurisdiction.

56 Chinese Arrive Here

Amidst the ravages of war and famine, China is looking toward the future and the building of a new and even greater nation. This was learned today with the reported arrival of 56 Chinese university graduates in the United States to receive further education. Two of the young people, whose ages range from 23 to 27, are going to attend Stanford University.

Arriving in Palo Alto yesterday afternoon were Franklin Hu, who will study business administration, and Miss T. K. Chow, who is majoring in education. They were met by a delegation of Chinese students already at Stanford and by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hansen, who took the students on a tour of the campus.

The 56 students arrived in the United States from Chungking aboard a U. S. transport last week. They flew from Chungking to Bombay where they were delayed for two months before boarding the transport. The group, all of whom have university degrees from Chinese colleges, took competitive examinations in Chungking. They are being sponsored by the Chinese Ministry of Education.

"Our country believes that education will be our only salvation," one of the students interviewed yesterday said. "We are continuing normal education as much as possible and only a few college seniors have been drafted into the army," he added.

Greatly enthused about the United States and the opportunities that await them, the group has chosen universities throughout the country to further their knowledge. Two will go to Cornell, one to study highway engineering, the other, agriculture. Three engineers are planning to attend the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. One of the six girls will study education at Vassar. Others will attend Michigan and Pennsylvania universities.

Yesterday, one of the students who will attend M.I.T. was taken to see Prof. Leon Reynolds, head of the civil engineering department at Stanford. He revealed that text books written by Professors Niles and Reed of Stanford had been the standard engineering texts in China.

Sgt. John DeLay Killed in Action

The War Department today revealed that T/Sgt. John DeLay, a former resident of Burlingame whose wife now lives in Redwood City, was killed in action in the European Theater of Operation.

Mrs. DeLay, the former Lillian Margaret Moeller, reports that she was notified by telegram from the adjutant general's office in Washington that her husband was killed on Nov. 16, 1944, in France.

The 31-year-old infantryman is believed to have met his death while in front line combat with the American Third Army, somewhere in France.

According to Mrs. DeLay, she has received several letters from Washington, D. C., explaining as much as censorship permits, concerning her husband's death.

Sergeant DeLay went overseas in July of 1944. At the time of his death, he had been in the army more than three years.

Mrs. DeLay and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Moeller, made their home at 1570 Cypress Ave., Burlingame, until moving last August to 427 Lake View Way, Redwood City.

R.C. Boy Scouts Display Handicraft

Honoring National Boy Scout Week, local scouts have arranged window displays in three downtown stores.

In the window of Baird's Pharmacy, scouts of Troop 105 are displaying general scout equipment, individual knots tied by the various boys and the scout badge, explaining its significance.

Troop 160, sponsored by the Redwood City Commuter's Club, is exhibiting knots and signal flags in the window of Hohn's Grocery Store. Also on display are copies of Boys' Life, the Scout magazine.

Redwood City Sea Scouts have arranged a display of their ship's equipment in the window of Miller's Radio Shop. The display includes model ships that the scouts have made, photographs of the boys on cruises and the steering wheel of the SSS Challenger, the scout ship.

Monday, Sea Scouts were hosts to their parents at Scout Hall. Fire Warden Bert Werder showed pictures to the boys and Bill Stevens presented a colored film on "Steel." Following the pictures, the boys enjoyed refreshments with their parents.

BILLY BRAND
STORIES OF NAMES THAT MAKE AMERICA GREAT
24
IS THAT THE CLOSE SHAVE YOU WERE TELLING MOM ABOUT LAST NIGHT, POP?
NEVER YOU MIND, BILLY.
IN 1895, IOWA-BORN JACOB SCHICK CROSSED THE CONTINENT ON A BICYCLE
ONLY 2,000 MORE MILES!
ENLISTING IN THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR, HE WAS SENT TO ALASKA, WHERE HE DESIGNED A FORERUNNER OF THE MODERN LANDING BARGE
THIS WOULD CARRY HEAVY CARGO BUT DRAW VERY LITTLE WATER.
THE NAVY MAY HAVE USE FOR THAT, SCHICK!
MINING IN ALASKA, SCHICK SPRAINED HIS ANKLE, HAD TO STAY IN CAMP SEVERAL WEEKS, BUT HIS MIND WAS RESTLESS
IF I COULD ONLY THINK OF SOMETHING MEN EVERYWHERE WOULD WANT...
ACCIDENTALLY RUBBING HIS STUBBLY CHIN INSPIRED A PRACTICAL GADGET—THE ELECTRIC SHAVER
JOVE! THAT'S IT! AND NO BOTHER WITH BRUSHES OR SOAP!
IN WORLD WAR I, HE DEVISED A MEANS OF FILLING 20 GAS MASKS IN ONE MINUTE—EARNED THE RANK OF COLONEL
IT TAKES ME 35 MINUTES TO FILL ONE MASK, SIR.
WE'LL HAVE TO FIX UP A MACHINE TO SPEED THINGS UP!
BACK IN THE U.S.A., COL. SCHICK WENT TO WORK ON HIS OLD HUNCH—THE ELECTRIC SHAVER
WHAT IT NEEDS IS AN A-1 SHEARING HEAD AND SOME SORT OF TINY MOTOR.
HOW ABOUT TRYING A TOY MOTOR?
SCHICK PATENTED HIS SHAVER IN 1928, HAD IT ON THE MARKET BY 1931, SOON MADE A HOST OF CONVERTS REALLY NO LATHER? NO BLADE!!
THAT'S THE IDEA. WANT TO TRY MINE?
THE COMPANY THAT BEARS SCHICK'S NAME IS THE ONLY ONE NOW MAKING SHAVERS AGAIN
HOW FAR OFF OUR BOW IS THE ESCORT NOW, MR. JONES?

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

We've been thinking about trees . . . and their place in Redwood City's planning and beautification. We haven't been reading Joyce Kilmer, but several things have made us tree conscious lately. Last week's storm blew over our pet acacia in front of the house . . . the pivot tree at the corner, leaving two others forlorn looking and unbalanced. Maybe it was seeing John Nordstrand, chairman of the Commuters "City Beautiful" committee, three times in a row at the movies that made us think about trees. Or was it the fact that the children want a dog? At any rate, here we go into a reverie on trees!

★ ★ ★

Inasmuch as the recently approved bond issue provided funds for tree planting, let's give the subject some serious thought; to the end that we will have "planting to a plan," and not just a lot of miscellaneous trees reflecting individual tastes and whims.

★ ★ ★

Without wishing to throw rocks at any of our former city planners, we can't say much for their selection of the evergreens planted along Brewster Ave. years ago. Like most of the fir family (and some of the human family) these trees get thick and droopy in middle life, overspreading the sidewalks and streets, and constituting a traffic menace at intersections because their low-hanging thick foliage obstructs the view.

Obviously, the ideal curbstone tree is one that grows tall and clean of limb for at least 10 or 12 feet from the ground; such as the maple and poplar used back East, and certain varieties of oak and ash. It is of paramount importance that a tree be selected whose trunk can be kept clean of branches 10 or 12 feet above ground, so that traffic views at intersections will not be obstructed, and so that sidewalks and streets near the curb will be free of foliage.

This brings up the question, just what tree native to California would be appropriate for Redwood City? We believe there is no tree more suitable or more appropriate for this community than the beloved redwood itself, the city's own namesake! Every newcomer here expects to see, and is disillusioned when he does not see, redwood trees! Let's make the city's name mean something, by having its beautiful residential streets and boulevards lined by these stately trees. Of course after two or three hundred years they may become a problem. Certainly when a thousand or fifteenhundred years old they will be crowding the curb and sidewalk pretty close in places. But let's leave that for posterity to worry about, along with the war debts, and the "younger generation" which is perpetually going to the dogs.

The Commuters' fifth anniversary dinner party last Thursday night at the Woman's Club was a very gratifying affair, neat but not gaudy, with 50 members present and a beautiful birthday cake presented by Burt Conroy, gentleman farmer and baker. Five lighted candles adorned the cake, and bridegroom Joe McClellan was invited to try to blow them out. Mac not only blew them out, but off the cake, along with most of the frosting. What a windy guy!

Not one, but three speakers addressed the meeting. Lead off man was Louie Chess, general passenger agent of the S.P., who dropped in to "thank the boys in person" for their help in getting all commuters to purchase their commutes before the first day of the month. Lou was accompanied by J. H. Pruett, Jr., district passenger agent for S.P. at Palo Alto.

★ ★ ★

Next followed Fred Beer, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, who talked briefly on the functions of the board and the advantages of the present charter form of government over the old system where each of the county's five districts was a political entity of its own. Beer explained how in the old days, a supervisor, elected only by his own constituency, could perpetuate himself in office by plugging only for his own district, many times to the detriment of other districts. He said now a supervisor is elected by the people of the county as a whole and he answers to them all, and he works for the good of the county as a unit and not alone his own district. He said in the old days each district kept up its own roads and each had its own road-building machinery. Now he said there is a common pool of equipment, with no expensive duplications, and that all of the road work is concentrated, as it should be, under one experienced head who must be an accredited civil engineer.

Beer's talk was so interesting and absorbing that the house committee decided to have cards at the next meeting asking commuters if they wish to hear more from the chairman of the board about the functions of the county supervisors. In short — (and we know we'll get shot for this) — whether or not they want another Beer!

★ ★ ★

Final speaker of the evening was Lt. Comdr. F. L. Mattson, USMS, a Yankee skipper of the Merchant Marine with a chest full of ribbons and citations and a lot of rugged service to his credit. He told of his experiences in the early days of the war (before we had anything to fight with), running cargoes on a slow freighter from Australia to the Philippines and Port Moresby; how his ship was manned by two outmoded machine guns which wouldn't fire; how they were shipwrecked and rescued, etc. A hair-raising story, but without heroics, simply told by a modest but courageous American.

Mrs. Anne Brubaker Takes Over New Job

Mrs. Anne Brubaker, business manager of the San Mateo Times, took office as president of the San Mateo County Press Assn. Monday night at a dinner meeting at Villa Chartier, San Mateo. She succeeds Floyd McCue of the Redwood City Star-Advertiser.

She was installed by George McQueen, publisher of the Burlingame Advance, who predicted that under her leadership the association will have one of its most successful years.

McQueen took office as secretary-treasurer, succeeding Ray Spangler, Redwood City.

Also at the meeting were Mrs. W. E. Pitschke, publisher of the Sharp Park Breakers, and her daughter, Mrs. Helen Cropsey; Elwood Williams, San Francisco manager for California Newspaper Publishers Assn., E. R. Lovett, general manager of Peninsula Newspapers Inc. and president-elect of CNPA; J. Hart Clinton, San Mateo Times and president of the CNPA Industrial Relations Bureau; Mrs. T. N. Thompson, San Carlos Bulletin; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lafferty of the San Carlos Enquirer; T. N. Thompson, Mrs. McCue, Mrs. McQueen, and Tom Brubaker.

County Plans To Aid S.F. During Meet

San Mateo County officials today extended an offer to San Francisco of all possible assistance for the world security charter meeting to be attended by 39 countries under the banner of the United Nations. The meeting will open in San Francisco Apr. 25.

"San Mateo County desires to offer all possible assistance to San Francisco in the handling of the United Nations conference to be held next April," Supervisor Chmn. Fred E. Beer said in a telegram this morning to Mayor Roger D. Lapham. "We wish to make any and all of our county facilities available to the extent that they may be helpful."

County Executive Frederick Peterson said that "San Mateo County will do its utmost to make this a momentous affair.

"We are proud to have our neighbor city host to a history-making event. San Mateo County will take part in the welcome. We offer Mayor Layham any assistance he may desire."

Date of the United Nations meeting in San Francisco, which was chosen by the Big Three as the site of the conference, is regarded in Washington as particularly significant because Apr. 25 would be Russia's last chance to tell Japan she wants to call off their non-aggression pact.

R.C. Man Dies While Driving

James A. Conway, 82, of 619 Woodside Rd., died of a heart attack Tuesday morning while taking a test for his driver's license in the heart of downtown Redwood City.

In the car with Mr. Conway when he died was Oscar D. Ritchie, examiner of the State Division of Drivers Licenses, who was testing Mr. Conway.

Mr. Conway's wife resides at the Woodside Rd. address. He was a brother-in-law of Capt. Cornelius C. Sullivan of the San Francisco Fire Dept. Mr. Conway was a former employe of the City of San Francisco.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Franklin & Crowe Mortuary.

Red Cross To Aid Applicants

"Applicants for the position of ambulance driver in the newly-established county ambulance service will receive the fullest of cooperation from the Redwood City Red Cross Chapter in obtaining standard first aid cards," First Aid Chmn. Richard Drivon said today.

Drivon, explaining that he had had several requests from applicants during the past weeks, pointed out that classes cannot be held for groups smaller than 10 or 12 persons.

However, he said, a waiting list for the 24-hour standard course will make it possible to begin instruction as soon as a definite class schedule can be arranged.

Two men who have applied for positions as ambulance drivers have already begun first aid instruction which is a requirement for the position, he said.

Seek $30,000 For Injuries

A San Francisco couple Wednesday asked $30,000 damages from J. L. Writesman, 348 Grand Blvd., San Mateo; James Pong Hall, Chinese butler, and Rudolph Schilling of Woodside for injuries suffered in a three-way traffic collision on Dec. 23, 1944.

Asking damages were William M. Simpson, driver of one of the automobiles involved, and his wife, Rae M. Simpson. Writesman was driver of one of the automobiles and Hall was driver of a station wagon owned by Schilling, member of the Schilling coffee family.

The accident occurred on Bayshore Hwy. south of Brisbane.

Ravenswood Plans School Meeting

Confronted with an increasingly overcrowded situation at the Ravenswood School in spite of the relief provided by the new four-room Willow School, the Ravenswood School Board has called a meeting for Monday afternoon, Feb. 26, at 4 p.m., in the Ravenswood building to consider the problem.

J. H. Stubbe brought the matter up at last night's meeting of the board and was informed that various proposals had been advanced for consideration. These and any suggestions that may come from residents of the district will be taken up at the meeting. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Two Dibble Men Injured in Crash

Two soldiers stationed at Dibble General Hospital and their sailor companion received minor injuries Tuesday at 3:45 a.m. when their automobile and one driven by Gilbert Medeiros, 27, of 1949 Capital Ave., East Palo Alto, collided on Bayshore Hwy. near the Santa Clara County line, the California State Highway Patrol reported.

The soldiers, William G. Gollinsworth, 21, driver, and Keith Mathis, 19, were headed north and Medeiros was making a left turn off the highway when the crash occurred, CHP officials said.

Cecil Page, the sailor, was taken to Moffett Field for treatment.

Thorpe Leaves Police Force To Take Investigator's Post

Leaving the Redwood City Police Department with which he has served for more than 20 years, W. H. (Bud) Thorpe, Tuesday became a deputy district attorney and civil investigator for San Mateo County.

Thorpe, traffic sergeant in the police department here, was appointed to the post by Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell. The appointment was announced exclusively in the Tribune last month.

Ferrell said Thorpe would be "an all-purpose man" in his office.

He has been granted a year's leave of absence from the police department.

Thorpe, who has been a member of the police department here since August, 1924, is a native of Redwood City and was graduated from Sequoia High School. He was admitted to the bar in 1936 after attending Sequoia Evening Law School.

He served as president of the Peninsula Peace Officers Assn. in 1939 and in 1940 was chairman of the Redwood City Merit and Retirement System Committee which was organized by city employes in order to request the civil service system.

Thorpe served as instructor at the San Mateo Junior College Police School and has attended various FBI and law enforcement classes on the Peninsula.

In 1941 he was a member of the Citizens' Traffic Committee. On Sept. 1, 1942, he was appointed alien permit officer, and in November, 1942, he was appointed chief air raid warden of Redwood City.

Thorpe, who was appointed a sergeant on the police force in 1939 and appointed to the traffic detail, is the son of Mrs. Zoe Thorpe, a teacher at McKinley School. His father, the late F. H. Thorpe, was city attorney at the time of his death in 1908.

Thorpe resides at 269 Fulton St. with his wife and three children, Mary Evelyn, 14; George, 7, and Winifred, 5.

McCue Named To Exchange Post

Appointment of Floyd McCue, junior past president of the Redwood City Exchange Club, to the office of district governor was announced at the Exchange Club meeting here Tuesday. The Redwood City club planned for formal installation ceremonies in March.

In a quiz program arranged by Don Brown, Sequoia High School instructor, four Sequoia High School students defeated as many Exchange Club members 10 to 5. Ferris W. Miles, Kiwanis Club president, judged the contest. The club was represented by Dr. Rollo LaBerge, Edmond Scott, Wilbur Doxsee and John Garland.

C of C Wins Praise For Aviation Stand

The Redwood City Chamber of Commerce was among the commercial and civic organizations which today received praise from Alexander B. Royce, chairman of the Airlines Committee for U.S. Air Policy for its endorsement of the principle of regulated competition in international air transport.

Opposing any "one-company" pro for international air trade, the airlines committee is comprised of all but one of the United States domestic air carriers.

A Report to the Public by JOHNS-MANVILLE

Highlights of 1944—third year of wartime operations

The public has a vital interest in knowing how well industry is doing its job in these critical war days.

Is industry continuing to carry its great share in the fight for victory? . . . What financial provision is being made for jobs in the future? . . . How much is paid to Government in taxes? . . . How much to employees? . . . To stockholders? . . . Is anything left for future needs?

An authoritative source of facts concerning these and other questions is provided by annual reports of the thousands of companies which constitute American business.

Because we believe the people want such information, Johns-Manville—as a typical American company—is again reporting not only to its stockholders and employees, but also to the public.

We publish below highlights of our annual statement as a report on the progress we have made in 1944.

Total Income	$101 million
For all costs (except those shown below)	48 million
To employees for salaries and wages	39 million
To government for taxes	9 million
To stockholders in dividends	2 million
Leaving in the business	3 million

★ For the third successive year, wartime production as measured by sales exceeded $100 million. This compares with $62 million in our peak year of peacetime production.

★ Earnings after taxes were 5 ⅔ cents per dollar of total income.

★ Wages and salaries were 38 ⅛ cents per dollar of total income.

★ Planning committees continued to analyze basic operations of the business and to project new plans and activities which will assure maximum war efficiency as well as new and improved operating methods and products for the years ahead.

★ The Fund for Deferred Expenditure was increased to $14,022,499. It will supply part of the capital necessary for postwar expansion, and help provide jobs for our men and women now in the armed services when they return.

★ Taxes were 9¼ cents per dollar of total income. They were equivalent to $10.93 per share of common stock, or $714.55 per employee.

★ 1944 production was accomplished in the face of severe manpower shortages. There were 13,000 employees at the end of 1944, compared with 14,100 at the end of 1943—a loss of 1,100.

★ Continued excellence of war production was attested to by additional awards of the Army-Navy "E" at two factories and at the Kansas Ordnance Plant, a Government-owned bomb- and shell-loading plant built and operated by Johns-Manville.

★ At the end of the year, 4,518 J-M men and women had entered the armed services of the United Nations. Sixty-one had lost their lives on active duty.

As we enter the fourth year of wartime operations, we renew our pledge to let no consideration swerve us from the task of working for victory to the full extent of Johns-Manville's ability to produce.

REDWOOD CITY PH. RC 1300

Red Cross Reports Damage To Emergency Supplies Here

The executive board of Redwood City Chapter, American Red Cross, learned today that hundreds of dollars worth of emergency medical supplies, stored in a county building at Middlefield Rd. and Marshall St., had been ransacked and strewn over the floor.

Mrs. A. B. Swinerton of Woodside, chairman of the chapter's volunteer special services section, said the supplies were in good order when last inspected six weeks previous.

Monday, she said, she found the store of dressings and drugs, including ether, morphine and other narcotics, in complete disorder. It was not learned if any of the supplies had been stolen, but Mrs. Swinerton removed all drugs from the county building.

She said she believed pointless malice, probably by young boys, rather than burglary was the motive.

Entry was forced, she believes, through a window on the jail side of the building. The State Highway Patrol office is directly across the street and in the rear of the building is the fire warden's office.

The executive board ordered a thorough investigation of the incident. It was pointed out that the Red Cross store of medical supplies had been built up for the casualty stations established by the emergency medical service immediately after declaration of war. Some of the supplies had been sold to the county.

Dr. James W. Thornton, chairman of the chapter for two terms, notified the board that he did not wish to be considered for re-election to the chairmanship again this year.

Members of the executive board are to be elected in April, and the board elects chapter officers.

Dr. Thornton said he felt that the chairmanship should be rotated.

"I feel that I have made my maximum contribution to the chapter, and that there is need for new energy," he declared. He said the pressure of his duties at Sequoia Union High School are increasing. He volunteered to continue his service on the board.

T. N. Thompson, member of the Red Cross board and chairman of the USO, disclosed that USO is planning to spend between $3000 and $4000 in redecorating and improving the USO Clubhouse, now used jointly by USO and Red Cross.

Sgt. E. F. Bottema Dies in Belgium

Sgt. Everett Fred Bottema, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bottema of 4417 Madison Ave., died Jan. 25 as a result of wounds received in action in Belgium eight days earlier, the War Department disclosed today.

The 20-year-old infantryman went overseas in October, 1944, and was stationed in England until the German breakthrough into Belgium when he was sent to the First Army at the front.

Sergeant Bottema was born in Everett, Wash., on Nov. 13, 1924, and entered the service on Apr. 4, 1943.

A former Sequoia High School student, he received his army training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and later at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., where he became an instructor in machine guns and chemical warfare. He was presented with an award for expert marksmanship while he was in Kentucky.

The sergeant was employed by the Western Pipe & Steel Co. before his entry into the service.

In addition to his parents, he leaves two brothers, S/Sgt. Stuart Bottema now with the Seventh Division in the Philippine Islands, and William Bottema of Redwood City. His sisters are Mrs. C. A. VanPatten of San Carlos, and Jean Bottema of San Francisco.

$60,000 Building Project To Start

Some relief for harassed house-hunters in war-crowded Redwood City was promised today by Contractor John E. McCarthy, who has obtained War Production Board priorities to erect five duplex homes at Lincoln Ave. and Adams St., one block west of El Camino Real.

The total cost will be $60,000, McCarthy announced, and work will start immediately.

The duplexes will be two-bedroom, double garage stucco structures, comparing favorably to pre-war standards, the contractor announced.

They will be offered on a rental basis to war workers employed in essential industries and certified by the War Housing Center.

Fat Still Needed

The government needs every drop of fat you can save—needs it to make medicines, munitions, special lubricants and scores of vital war needs. So keep on saving fats. Keep on selling it to your butcher. He'll keep on giving you cash and extra ration points for it.

The flotation method utilizes ores once considered worthless.

Supplies Gasoline For Yank Armies

Pvt. Robert Lewis, Sequoia High School graduate, has been pouring gasoline for the advancing Yank armies in France and Germany since June 26 — D-Day plus 20 — as a member of a motor transport service unit.

Traveling between 10 and 750 miles one way to make their deliveries, the drivers of the 2000-gallon tankers with trailer tanks of equal capacity behind are the last link between combat units and sources of supply.

During the first months of the fighting, the men in the unit led an uncertain existence, a fact which is substantiated in a dispatch describing their work.

In one instance, a New York corporal, unaware that a German shell had pierced his loaded gas tank, for two weeks was puzzled by the rattle in the rear. An investigation disclosed that an unexploded shell, apparently stopped by the weight of the gasoline, had only pierced the tank and had not gone through.

One convoy carrying a load of high octane motor gas drove through a town that was burning. The drivers rolled through despite the blaze. They came through all right, the dispatch states, but each 4000 gallon load was so hot they could not touch the sides of the tanks.

Lewis, who has been in the army more than two years, went overseas 18 months ago. Before entering the service he was employed in San Bruno.

His mother, Mrs. Ethel Lopez, lives at 2321 Middlefield Rd., and his wife resides in San Francisco.

His brothers are Cpl. John Lopez, PFC Phillip Lopez and Pvt. Raymond Lopez, all of the army.

Church Gives Bread

For years the parish church of St. Andrews, Ashburton, England, has given a four-pound loaf of bread to all who attended Friday morning prayers.

Forty-year tests at the U. S. Fisheries Laboratory at Piver's Island, N. C., show that diamond-back terrapin can be bred as easily as chickens.

R.C. Boy Scout News

As the highlight of the observance of the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America the scout rally for units in the southern district, Friday, will present featured activities of the scouting program. The event will be held at the McKinley School and will begin at 8 o'clock. All parents and friends of cubs, scouts and Sea Scouts are invited to attend.

Music by the San Mateo Scout Band under the direction of E. O. Brose will open the program. The pledge of allegiance will follow, and the assembled units will give the pledge of their respective groups. Dist. Chmn. Chester Armstrong will formally open the program and the greetings of the San Mateo County Council will be given by Scout Executive E. A. Barrer.

Troop 120, under the direction of H. S. Stout, scoutmaster, will open the demonstrations, presenting a typical scout camping scene. Demonstrations which are to follow include first aid by Troop 159, F. Eilerman, scoutmaster; Scoutcraft by Troop 104, L. Allen, scoutmaster; Wrex Cruse will direct knife and axe demonstration of Troop 160; W. S. Lane will be in charge of Troop 162 demonstration flint and steel; knot work will be shown by Troop 143 with H. Day as leader; types of signaling will be presented by members of the Sea Scout ship "Challenger" under Skipper W. Britschgi; Troop 149 will present two short skits in charge of K. Wenzel, scoutmaster.

The significance of the scout badge will be graphically displayed by Troop 105 with T. J. Seitz, scoutmaster, directing. All cubs present will take part in a colorful demonstration of flag usage under the direction of Cubmaster Walter Shugert. The closing ceremony will be in charge of Troop 120.

William Stevens, Ralph Case and Stanley Marcus with Chet Wilson, assistant scout executive as adviser, form the committee in charge of the evening's activities.

Troop notes:

Troop 103—Meetings at the Ravenswood School under the direction of Lawrence Welch, scoutmaster, have been devoted to the study of scoutcraft for the past week or so. Twenty scouts were present at the last meet.

Troop 104—At the Feb. 6 meeting of the troop mothers of the scouts were guests. Featured were scoutcraft, demonstrations and patrol skits. Hot chocolate and cookies were served as refreshments. Richard Villalba has qualified as a First Class Scout. Twenty-two scouts, under the direction of L. W. Allen, were in attendance with members of the troop committee and parents bringing the total present to over 50.

Troop 105—An investiture ceremony for recently qualified Tenderfoot Scouts was a feature of the last meeting. Dick Ovarado has also passed his Tenderfoot test. Seventeen scouts and Scoutmaster T. J. Seitz were present.

Ship 145—The yeomen of the "Challenger" reported 15 regular crew members, two candidates and two visitors present at the last regular meeting of the ship under the direction of Skipper Warner Britschgi.

Troop 149—F. J. Wenzel, scoutmaster, supervised the rehearsal of a series of patrol plays at the last regular meeting of the troop attended by 15 scouts.

Troop 153—Troop 153 had a busy evening under the direction of H. E. Purcell, scoutmaster. Twenty-nine members were present. David Duxbury, Bill Weikers, Harry Hobbs and Jerry Babin all completed their requirements for Second Class Scout rank. The inter-patrol contest for the evening featured a display of hobbies and a "Mystery Man" game provided the fun. A first aid drill and several individual scoutcraft projects complete the business. One of the patrols was on a day hike last week.

Troop 154—Meeting at the San Carlos School under the leadership of S. Barber, scoutmaster, a program, presented by members of the San Carlos Police Department, was witnessed by 29 scouts and over 30 of their parents and friends. The program presented by the police featured types of firearms, fingerprinting equipment, photographs of police records and a series of movies showing means of handling and subduing criminals.

Blue Points Buy Less Than One-Tenth of Diet Need

Under the O. P. A. allowance of 50 blue points per person each month, less than one-tenth the fruits and vegetables which U. S. department of agriculture experts recommend for a minimum low income diet, can be obtained from commercial canned goods.

At a time when so many housewives are working, and must rely more than ever on the grocers' shelves for quick and easily prepared meals, the return of canned vegetables to the ration list presents a most serious problem.

While frozen fruits and vegetable are unrationed, the supply both this winter and next summer is expected to be less than last year; and reserves on pantry shelves both of commercial and home packed foods have been reduced, as a result of optimism, and a substantial drop in home canning in 1944.

Until Victory Gardens can begin their precious contribution of nutritive and appetizing foods to the family table, the average American housewife will find it difficult to provide her family with a balanced nutritious diet.

Let's take a look at the actual amounts of vegetables and fruits their families need each week. The following are excerpts from charts in "Rose's Foundation of Nutrition," modern 4th edition, by MacLeod and Taylor.

Blue Points Buy Under 10% of Diet Needs

Of 11,700 calories which a family of five requires as a daily minimum, department of agriculture experts say a minimum of 1400 to 1640 should come from fruits and vegetables. But blue point allowance, less than 10 points a day, will not buy one-tenth this calorie quota in canned fruits and vegetables.

A family of five, including two moderately active adults and three children of 2, 8 and 14 years respectively, requires for an adequate diet 11,700 calories a day. Of these, the minimum (low income) amount which should be supplied by fruits and vegetables, on the government standard, is 1400 to 1640.

Toward this daily need, canned fruit and vegetables, if obtainable, would contribute as follows:

	Calories	Blue Points
1 No. 2 can tomatoes	164	20
1 No. 2 can spinach	113	10
1 No. 2½ can pears	681	60
1 No. 2 can green beans	158	10
	1116	100

FOOD FOR A WEEK—MODERATE-COST MEALS

	Tomatoes, Citrus, Fruits	Leafy, Green and Yellow Vegetables	Other Vegetables and Fruits	Calorie Requirement Daily
Girls
13 to 15 yrs.	1 lb. 12 oz.	3 lbs. 8 oz.	3 lbs. 4 oz.	2700
16 to 20 yrs.	2 lbs.	3 lbs. 8 oz.	4 lbs. 4 oz.	2500
Women
Moderately Active	2 lbs.	3 lbs. 8 oz.	4 lbs.	2500
Very Active	2 lbs.	3 lbs.	4 lbs.	3000
Sedentary	2 lbs.	3 lbs. 8 oz.	3 lbs. 8 oz.	2100
Boys
13 to 15 yrs.	2 lbs.	3 lbs.	5 lbs.	3200
16 to 20 yrs.	2 lbs.	3 lbs.	5 lbs. 8 oz.	3600
Men
Moderately Active	2 lbs.	3 lbs.	4 lbs.	3000
Very Active	2 lbs.	3 lbs.	5 lbs.	4500
Sedentary	2 lbs.	3 lbs. 8 oz.	3 lbs. 4 oz.	2500

Figuring from this authority, the food needs for a family of four would be about 8 lbs. of tomatoes and citrus fruits, 13½ lbs. leafy, green and yellow vegetables, and 16 lbs. of other vegetables and fruits, per week. The family's blue points will buy only a small fraction of this.

The U. S. department of agriculture has determined nutritive requirements on an income basis, finding that for the low income group 12 to 14 per cent of total calories should be in fruits and vegetables; for medium incomes, 14 to 17 per cent, and for high incomes, 17 to 20 per cent.

This would take 100 points a day, whereas the family allowance (250 per month) is less than 1 points per day. And even if these foods could be obtained, there would remain a deficit below minimum needs of 285 to 525 calories which would have to be made up by potatoes, cabbage, turnips, beets and other fresh or stored vegetables.

In short, no family can obtain an adequate diet on rationed canned fruit and vegetables, and all who lack reserves of canned goods must compete for the limited supplies of unrationed frozen and fresh vegetables, until the season of Victory Gardens again arrives.
